Re: Supplemental Response to Request for Additional Information
Dated May 23, 2013 – Friends of Christine O'Donnell
C00449595

Dear Ms. Davis:

My client, Friends of Christine O'Donnell ("the Committee"), has forwarded to me the Request for Additional Information ("RFAI") letter dated May 23, 2013. The RFAI was received and a response filed on June 27, 2013. You have kindly contacted Matt Moran, Treasurer of the Committee to inquire as to whether we would like to supplement the earlier response. This is in response to that inquiry.

As background, please note that the Committee operated with very little funding and no professional compliance, legal or accounting vendor(s) or professionals for the entire 2010 election cycle until shortly before the primary election on September 14, 2010.

When Ms. O'Donnell won the Republican nomination for the Delaware US Senate on September 14, there were only 5 short weeks before the 2010 General Election.

Immediately, there was a huge influx of online contributions to the Committee from donors all over the country. The number of donors and donations accelerated exponentially virtually overnight and the Committee was not structured to handle the incredible increase in contributions.

Within one week after the primary, the Committee retained me as legal counsel and I immediately began a search for professional compliance vendors to come into the campaign offices and to create a functioning database and system for receiving and reporting contributions and expenditures.
